

Florida Police Chiefs Education and Research Foundation Bylaws

Revised March 30, 2021

PREAMBLE

The Florida Police Chiefs Education and Research Foundation is a nonprofit corporation organized solely for general charitable purposes pursuant to the Florida Not for Profit Act. The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is formed is to operate for the advancement of charity and education, and for other charitable purposes and particularly to provide financial assistance and support to the Florida Police Chiefs Association, Inc., including by not limited to, supporting the activities of the Florida Police Chiefs Association, Inc., in the areas of education, research, training, and the gathering and dissemination of information to law enforcement organizations and the general public.

ARTICLE I

MEMBERS: CONTRIBUTORS

The corporation shall have three (3) CATEGORIES OF MEMBERS: corporate or executive, citizen representatives, government representatives. Members shall be acknowledged and provided such privileges or services as may be determined by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees may consist of a maximum of twenty-three (23) members unless expanded as set forth in SECTION 2. Eight of the Trustees shall be active members of the Florida Police Chiefs Association, Inc. (The FPCA). Active membership in the FPCA shall be defined as being employed in a full-time law enforcement position as chief executive, and/or command staff as determined by the chief executive officer, engaged in the management of a Florida Municipal, College/University, School Board/District, Tribal or Airport, Railroad or Port Authority law enforcement agency in Florida.

Five (5) of these eight (8) shall serve as Trustees ex officio by reason of their office in the FPCA. These five (5) shall be the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Third Vice President, and Secretary/Treasurer. The three (3) remaining active trustees shall be appointed by the FPCA President.

In addition, there may be a maximum of fifteen (15) non-active Trustees who shall be non-active members of the FPCA. Non-active trustees are not employed in a full-time law enforcement position as a chief executive and/or command staff position. Two (2) of the fifteen (15) shall serve as trustees ex officio by reason of their position in the FPCA and shall be the FPCA Executive Director and the FPCA Finance and Administration Manager. The remaining thirteen (13) trustees shall be elected by a majority vote of the existing Board of Trustees.

VOTING/BOARD GUIDELINES

The Board of Trustees may be expanded by the majority vote of the entire Board of Trustees provided that the number to be added to the Board of Trustees shall always be an uneven number with a non-active member majority. A board Chairman will be elected by a majority vote of the existing Board of Trustees.

When Trustees are to be elected by vote of the existing Board of Trustees, each Trustee shall have one vote for each position to be filled and the nominees with the greatest number of votes shall be elected. It shall not be permissible for a Trustee to cast more than one vote for any single nominee (i.e., no cumulative voting). In the event of a tie there shall be a runoff election among the tied nominees. A Trustee whose position is to be filled shall have no vote.

Non active FPCA members will serve a one (1) year term and be re-elected from year to year with the approval and consent of the majority vote of the Board of Trustees.

SECTION 3

REMOVAL/RESIGNATION

In the event a non FPCA member vacancy occurs on the Board of Trustees the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees. Any Trustee may be removed by the affirmative vote of the majority of Board of Trustees with or without cause.

SECTION 4

GENERAL POWERS: The Board of Trustees shall have control and management of the business, funds, and property of the corporation, and shall have the power to appoint and define the duties of committees.

SECTION 5

MEETINGS/QUORUM

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held on or about the time of the FPCA's Mid-Winter and Summer conferences.

Special meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be called by the Secretary and held at the request of the Chairman of the Board, the President or of any five (5) of the Trustees.

The Secretary shall give notice of each meeting of the Board of Trustees, whether regular or special, to each member of the Board by telephone, by mail, or other electronic means at least two (2) days before the meeting, which notice need not specify the purposes of the meeting. Attendance at a meeting by a Trustee without objection to the form of notice shall constitute a waiver of notice.

A majority of the Trustees holding office present at the time of any meeting shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Board of Trustees. Except as may otherwise be provided in these Bylaws or in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation, or by law, the act of a majority of Trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees may hold its meetings at such place within or without the State of Florida as the Board may determine. A trustee must be present at a meeting of Trustees in order to vote at such meeting provided that, with a meeting: (a) actions may be taken by a majority of the Trustees in writing, and (b) at the request of the Chairman, Trustees may vote on a question or election by mail, fax, telephone, video conferencing or other electronic means. In the event of a vote by mail, fax, telephone, video conferencing or other electronic means the entire Board of Trustees shall be considered present and a majority vote shall be the act of the Board of Trustees.

COMPENSATION

Trustees, as such, shall not receive any stated salary for their services, but, on resolution of the Board, a fixed sum of expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each meeting, regular or special provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Trustee from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefore. Members of either executive or special committees may be allowed such compensation as the Board of Trustees may determine for attending committee meetings.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS

The officers of the corporation shall be appointed or elected from the existing Board of Trustees and shall include a Chairman of the Board, a President, and if desired by the Trustees, one or more Vice Chairmen, and such other officers and assistant officers as deemed necessary. Officers shall hold office for one (1) year, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Officers may be removed by a majority vote of the Trustees with or without cause.

The Board of Trustees may appoint one or more Vice Chairmen, and such officers and agents to act for the corporation as it may from time to time determine.

The same person may hold more than one office, other than that of Chairman and Vice Chairman, or Secretary/Treasurer and Assistant Secretary/Treasurer. However, when any resolution of the Trustees requires action by more than one officer, one individual shall not be authorized to take such action by virtue of holding two offices.

In case of the absence of any officer or for any other reason which the Board of Trustees may deem sufficient, the Board of Trustees may delegate the powers or duties of such officer to any other officer or Trustee, provided a majority of the entire Board of Trustees concurs therein.

ARTICLE IV.
