Florida Police Chiefs Association Endorses U.S. Senator Marco Rubio for Reelection

Tallahassee, Fla. – The Florida Police Chiefs Association (FPCA) today endorsed Marco Rubio for reelection as U.S. Senator of the State of Florida.

"On behalf of the Florida Police Chiefs Association, we are honored to endorse Senator Marco Rubio for reelection to the U.S. Senate," said FPCA president and Daytona Beach Shores Public Safety Department Director Stephan Dembinsky. "Senator Rubio has been a consistent supporter of law enforcement in our nation's capital, standing not just for public safety but for the health and welfare of law enforcement officers, even when it hasn't been politically popular."

"Florida's law enforcement are vital to the safety and security of our communities," said Senator Rubio. "These men and women wake up every day not knowing what they might face that day, but they put on their uniforms anyway and go out and do their jobs. I am honored that the Florida Police Chiefs Association has put their support behind me, and I promise to continue to fight for our law enforcement in Washington."

Said Dembinsky, "The Florida Police Chiefs Association is proud to support Senator Rubio, and we look forward to continuing our work with him on behalf of the people of Florida."

About the Florida Police Chiefs Association

The Florida Police Chiefs Association (FPCA) is the nation's pre-eminent law enforcement professional association, speaking for over 1,000 of Florida's top law enforcement executives, and providing guidance and leadership for the future of law enforcement and our communities. The FPCA serves municipal, airport, college and university, and tribal police departments, as well as private businesses and security firms and federal, state and county law enforcement agencies across every region of the state.
