Florida Police Chiefs Association Endorses Chief Financial Officer Jimmy Patronis for Reelection

Tallahassee, Fla. – The Florida Police Chiefs Association (FPCA) today endorsed Jimmy Patronis for reelection as Chief Financial Officer of the State of Florida.

"On behalf of the Florida Police Chiefs Association, we are honored to endorse Chief Financial Officer Jimmy Patronis for reelection," said FPCA president and Daytona Beach Shores Public Safety Department Director Stephan Dembinsky. "CFO Patronis has been a vocal and resolute champion of protecting and defending law enforcement officers as they serve the people of Florida."

FPCA 1st vice-president and Fellsmere Police Department Chief Keith Touchberry said, "CFO Patronis has consistently made the health and welfare of first responders a priority all the time, not just when it's politically convenient, and we know we can count on his continued leadership."

FPCA 2nd vice-president and Clermont Police Department Chief Charles "Chuck" Broadway said, "CFO Patronis has always led from the front during times of tragedy like major hurricanes and the Surfside building collapse, delivering the support first responders need to do their job."

About the Florida Police Chiefs Association

The Florida Police Chiefs Association (FPCA) is the nation's pre-eminent law enforcement professional association, speaking for over 1,000 of Florida's top law enforcement executives, and providing guidance and leadership for the future of law enforcement and our communities. The FPCA serves municipal, airport, college and university, and tribal police departments, as well as private businesses and security firms and federal, state and county law enforcement agencies across every region of the state.
