APRIL 3, 2024, 8:00 A.M. - NOON POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER

TO PROTECT AND SERVE THOSE WHO PROTECT

A dynamic, powerful, and emotional presentation regarding the reality of the incident rate of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder within the ranks of our Law Enforcement community. Emphasis is placed on the history of PTSD, with a specific focus on police suicide, as well as recommendations for administrative training to prepare, insulate, protect, and treat the expected exposure to trauma.

Saying about this Presentation:

“Wonderful presentation that should be seen and heard by all police managers.”
Peter Kehoe, New York State Sheriff's Association

“As a 25-year veteran police officer, I thought the presentation was thought provoking and entirely relevant for all police leaders as we seek strategies to assist our people in surviving the day-to-day experiences of being a law enforcement officer.”
Captain Tim Talley, New York State Police

“Extremely important topic, every law enforcement executive needs to know. One of the best presentations and one of the worst tragedies leading to the presentation.”
Sheriff John M. York, Sheriff, Livingston County
